Aboundi signs BlueStar Canada to Master Distributor Agreement

Partnership brings Aboundi Inc.'s Electric Connect® Solution to Canada

Nashua, NH – August 24, 2009 – “BlueStar is excited to provide new capabilities to our Value Added Resellers. Expanding our clients' product portfolios is always exciting, especially when they can be applied to most of the environments that our VARs service. Of particular interest will be the impact of Aboundi's solutions on the Point of Sale vertical,” says Jacques Lapierre, President of BlueStar Canada. “Aboundi technology allows BlueStar to serve new markets and continue its commitment to provide the widest and fastest growing line of POS products in the industry.”

“BlueStar’s well respected reputation in the POS industry and its proven ability to provide value-added support and services to its reseller network, makes us very excited about partnering with them. Finding the right partner to service and support our product was not a difficult decision; when we thought about how we were going to grow and support our business in Canada, we thought of BlueStar,” says Hong Yu, President of Aboundi. “We look forward to working with them to bring our unique technology to key vertical markets such as retail, hospitality, healthcare, and government.”

Aboundi Inc. is a leader in providing POS, retail, hospitality, small to medium-sized business (SMB), government and enterprise organizations with cost effective, commercially advanced, networking deployment solutions. Incorporating existing legacy copper wiring as networking infrastructure within buildings, Aboundi's Electric Connect® solution provides very effective, earth friendly and powerful value propositions for productive business operations.
